

Flying Training March 2020 onwards

Due to the current health issues surrounding the COVID-19 Virus all training and BMFA achievement scheme tests have been suspended until further notice, therefore no training roster will be published until further notice.

I hope you can understand why this decision has been taken and would ask for your support in these extreme circumstances.